4 generations gather for birthday

By REG WHITTY
Special correspondent

HARROWSMITH — Looking at least 20 years younger, Mrs. Cora Garrison celebrated her 90th birthday surrounded by four generations of her family, at the home of granddaughter Mrs. Jerry Ruttan.

Now a resident of Fairmount Home at Glenburnie, Mrs. Garrison lived for many years in the historic hamlet of Petworth, by the shore of the beautiful Napanee River.

Her marriage to the late Manford Garrison in 1916 followed a trend of the times, when the pretty young rural school teacher boarded in the community at the homes of local farm families. The former Cora Matthews of Bath chose to stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Garrison where a romance bloomed with their son Manford.

Following their marriage, they lived with Manford's parents for several years caring for them in their old age. "We did lots of hard work in those days — getting up early in the morning to milk our cows by hand, raising pigs, ducks and chickens, but I really enjoyed being able to do it," she says.

The names of the children listed for Marvel Garrison indicate the possibility probability of descent from Jonas (2) Garrison or Garretson and wife Cornelia Debroot, married at Tappan, N. Y., Oct 13, 1708. Tappan Church records may show more (they were published in History of Rockland County). Jonas Garrison, later at Tarrytown & possibly at West Point, was from Westchester, N. Y., son of Derick or Richard Garretson by wife Mary (—) (perhaps Caniff or Jewell)
